

New York Opportunity Zones

514 Opportunity Zones

2087k Zone Residents

1186k Zone Jobs

82k Zone Businesses

Non-Metro
10%

Metro
90%

Demographics for New York's Opportunity Zones

	New York	New York Opportunity Zones
Minority Population	44%	71%
Poverty Rate	14%	27%
Average MFI*	$84,385	$52,800
Bachelor's Degree+	37%	25%
Adults Not Working	21%	28%
Housing Vacancy	8%	10%
Rent Burdened	52%	56%

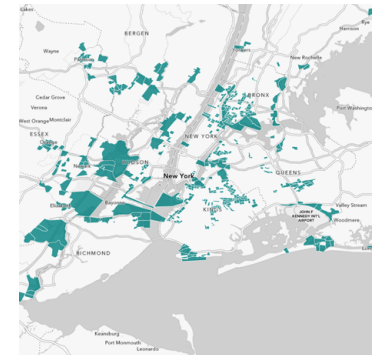

Congressional districts with largest number of zones

Representative	District	Party	Zones
Ritchie Torres	NY-15	D	66
Hakeem S. Jeffries	NY-08	D	49
Nydia M. Velázquez	NY-07	D	38
Adriano Espaillat	NY-13	D	36

To learn more visit <https://eig.org/opportunityzones>
Contact: info@eig.org

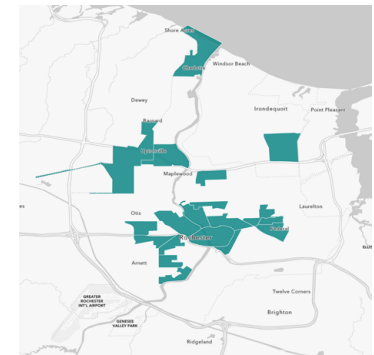

Major urban areas with largest number of zones

New York

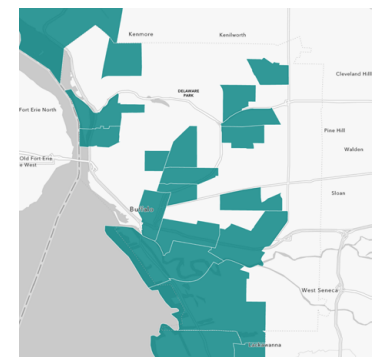

306 Tracts

Rochester, NY

18 Tracts

Buffalo

17 Tracts

U.S. Opportunity Zones

Over 8,700
Zones

35 million
residents

1.6 million
businesses*

24 million
jobs*

Data Notes

Minority Population reflects the share of the population that does not identify as white, non-Hispanic.

Bachelor's Degree + reflects the share of the population age 25 and older who hold a bachelor's degree or higher.

Adults Not Working reflects the share of the population age 25 to 64 not working (i.e. either unemployed or not in the labor force).

Housing Vacancy reflects the share of housing units that are vacant, adjusted for recreational, seasonal, or occasional use vacancies.

Rent Burdened reflects the share of renter-occupied households that spend 30%+ of their household income on housing

Businesses and jobs data sourced from ESRI, 2017 data. All other data sourced from the American Community Survey, 2015-2019 data.

Minority Population

Poverty Rate

Average
Median Family Income

Bachelor's Degree+

Adults Not Working

Housing
Vacancy

Rent Burdened

United States*

39%

15%

$70,900

31%

27%

8%

51%

Average U.S.
Opportunity Zones*

56%

29%

$44,700

18%

36%

13%

55%

*Figure does not include Puerto Rico and the other U.S. territories

To learn more visit <https://eig.org/opportunityzones> | Contact: info@eig.org