

Paid Policy Internship

The Economic Innovation Group (EIG) is a bipartisan public policy organization dedicated to forging a more dynamic and inclusive American economy. Headquartered in Washington, DC, EIG produces nationally-recognized research and works with policymakers to develop ideas that empower workers, entrepreneurs, and communities.

About the Role

EIG's Policy Intern will reside within EIG's policy team but also contribute to research, communications, events, and administrative activities as needed. Interns will have the opportunity to engage in all areas of EIG's operations and work directly with EIG's leadership team and staff on a wide variety of projects and topics. Interns will have a unique opportunity to contribute to policy and advocacy efforts impacting distressed communities, U.S. economic growth, and new business and job creation. The successful candidate must be a self-starter with a background in economic policy and/or economic research and experience in congressional relations and government affairs. Excellent research and writing skills, as well the ability to handle multiple tasks under short deadlines, are essential qualities. Current third or fourth year undergraduates, graduate students, and recent graduates are encouraged to apply.

Specific responsibilities will include, but not be limited, to the following:

- Conducting policy research and congressional bill tracking;
- Attending and taking notes at relevant events and Congressional hearings;
- Researching and writing in-depth reports and briefing memos;
- Assisting with events and outreach efforts;
- Monitoring online conversation in EIG issue areas; and
- Supporting administrative, events, and operations activities.

Apply

Applicants should send a resume and cover letter to careers@eig.org with the subject line "EIG Policy Internship." The internship will start in January and run through June. You will be expected to work 40 hours a week and will be paid $20 per hour. This is a hybrid position that combines regular in-person presence at our Washington, D.C., office with the option of two days of remote work each week.

EIG is proud to be an equal opportunity workplace. We are committed to equal employment opportunity regardless of race, color, ancestry, religion, gender, gender identity, parental or pregnancy status, national origin, sexual orientation, age, citizenship, marital status, disability, or Veteran status.
